“ Loved working with Sandy. We talked about our families and our pets and how much they meant to us. She crafted beautiful wreaths I have been proud to hang on my door always including a butterfly or a bird as her signature. She was tough dedicated and full of love and compassion and such a genuine soul. Be at peace my friend. God bless you and heal the hearts of all your loved ones.

“ Words cannot begin to explain the heaviness in my heart. Things won't be the same without Sandy living across the road. I will miss the little things the most. Like her waving from the porch, or standing outside with us watching the storm clouds roll in during tornado season. Or when she would drop in and yell "knock knock" as she opened the door. Even Chauncey, the dog, would look forward to her frequent visits. He would hear her voice on the phone and run to the window to watch for her coming up the driveway. She truly did have an amazing and positive impact on everyone she knew. I'm so grateful to have been able to grow up with such a kind, loving woman in my life. Heaven truly did gain an angel. To say she will be missed is an understatement. Until we meet again.

“ To Maria, Tina, Brian and Scott...I am so sorry for the loss of your Mom...I loved her too and will miss her smile and Laugh...to you all I give you my heart through these words in your time of pain....John 14:1-4 “Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.”

Death is a hard transition for us as Family and friends, to fully understand where our loved ones have gone. Some religions have taught us some things that hurt us more by believing our loved ones are going into a hot place. The scripture above says it very clear and by the one who was sent to show us He beat death. The spirit lives on and knows no time. Our loved ones are free from the body that binds us to this earth. Our loved ones can watch over us with love and neutrality that God does, not judging but always loving and supporting us.

Romans 8:16-17 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

2 Corinthians 5:6-8 So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

I love you and am always here for you,

Love God

I am here if you need anything,
