“ I am so sorry to your dad, sisters, aunts, cousins, and friends for their loss. Sarah, I haven't seen you in so many years, but I will always remember seeing you when you had sleepovers at your Aunt Angie's and playing ping-pong with you, Cassie and your cousin Jamie in your basement on Griswold St. You were the sweetest little girl, with the brightest, most sparkly eyes and gentlest smile. May you rest in heavenly peace and may your loved ones find comfort in their greatest memories.
