“ Aunt Sarah was a GREAT second mom. She mothered my brothers and me when our mom had to be with our sick brothers. Many great times were had on Seventh Street. I will always remember sitting on Aunt Sarah's lap one hot summer day, she had on a sweater and stated " I can't wait for menopause so I can get warm". Another time she was at our house in the basement racing with us while pushing one of my brothers in a stroller when she fell face first, smacked her nose on the cement floor, jumped up all bloody and declared I THINK IT'S Broke!! I don't remember how long her eyes were black. We will all miss you!
God Bless You Aunt Sarah
Love, Debbie
