“*Nick- Nick, you will truly be missed by all of the old Jay Hawk teammates. We grew up spending the nights at each other's house. You were one of the best goalies and the most honest friend that you could get. Just saw you at Silver Sticks and had a chance to chat. Now that few minutes we had to chat, means the world to me .You were a great role model for the younger generation. Wishing strength and comfort for your family to get through this time. R.I.P, Nick-Nick.
Miss you truly,

“Words escape me to describe what I am feeling about the stunning loss this community has suffered. Scott made friends wherever he went. His smile and warmth were a beacon in this community. Not only have his own children lost a father, but so many children in the Blue Water Area have also lost a great mentor. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. RIP Scott. You will remain in our hearts and memories.

“ The name ‘Scott Nichols’ is recognized and respected across the state. Pick a Michigan town, big or small, and Scott Nichols likely played or coached there and left an impression. Probably won there, too. Whether competing, teaching, or pressing the play button on that laugh of his that kept his jovial cheeks aloft ... Scott Nichols influenced us.

We at Croswell-Lexington only had the fortune of spending one of Scott's high-school years with him. It took Scott and his personality all of a half-day to fit in and make it seem like he had grown up a Pioneer. But then we saw him skate – and were reminded that kids from Croswell or Lexington don't skate that fast or gracefully. We can't claim him as one of ours, but we sure are thankful he shared his ever-present laugh and athletic skills with us for one year. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, it was a privilege knowing your son. I haven't any doubt, Scott's legacy will skate on in his children and the countless students he influenced. I am terribly sorry about your loss. I send my condolences to the Nichols family.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Scott's family and friends during these difficult times. Growing up I had the privilege of calling Scott and Matt friends, we had many good times playing sports and just hanging out. Scott went on to lead an extraordinary life with all of the students he reached, athletes he coached, and people who had the opportunity to laugh and smile with him. Scott was an amazing person, teacher, coach, father, husband, son and friend. He will be missed by many but never forgotten.

“ So very sorry for the loss of such a great man, coach, teacher, mentor and friend. Scotty was an assistant coach for my son 3 years ago when your youngest was in an infant car seat. He would bring the boys with him to hockey sometimes and us moms would love to watch them. He was such a great person in all aspects of life and touched so many lives, what a great tribute to life. May God keep you in his arms and may memories and support from family and friends help you through this nightmare.
