“ Mike! Where do we start? How bout when we first met. You asked me to come over and listen to Elvis records. I can't even single out any of the adventures we shared together. Sporting events, concerts, movies, canoeing, and not to mention some serious beer drinking, to name a few. Say hello to all our friends up there in heaven for me. You will be in good company. I will see you again some day, but not yet. I have unfinished business and lots of stories to tell about you!

*Love your good friend,
Don*

“ Mike was like a second big brother to me growing up. He was my brothers Best friend! He was family❤️ and my whole family loved him! 😊 There are so many memories I could share. He had that distinctive laugh. You knew he was in the room just by hearing it. He was the first guy that I knew that loved to wear pink 😊 and he loved taking everyone’s lighters if you left them out unsupervised. He loved Elvis!! And his hair had to be perfect. And he was definitely a protector and treated me like a little sister. He will be missed dearly. Rest in peace Mike. Xo Karen Ciavone

“ Growing up Michael had a great group of friends (Donny, Traci, Ed, Ed, Dave Ray) I am sure I am missing a few. These guys were always together. They would do KISS concerts where they dress up and sang. So much fun. They also had jungle juice party's on the weekends, if they didn't have a party we were at a concert at pine knob.
