“ When Sharon and Glen first met we had many good times with them. I was best man at their wedding. The service was performed by Port Huron Mayor Clayton Berdan. Shortly after, we moved to California (then Atlanta) and lost touch with them. We've thought about them a lot over the years and we know Sharon will be deeply missed. RIP!

“ I will never forget how much she treasured us children. We were her world and it showed in everything she did and every breath she took! She just wanted to be the best possible mother that she could be. I believe she accomplished that goal. I love you mama.

Your daughter Angie.
