Sharon Anne (Meakin) Bradley, age 78 of Lexington, passed away on December 14, 2023, peacefully, at home, with her family by her side. She was born on February 2, 1945 in Grosse Pointe, to the late James Meakin and Lucille DeCoteau (Joseph).

“ What do you say when you lose your best friend ...your confident ..your go to...and she just happens to be mom...did I say enough? Did I say too much ? Did I say the right things or the wrong? 5 more minutes is all I want “ Sharon & Bill & Rick & I went on many vacations together. Don't remember the exact date of this cruise (maybe 2006 or 2007) but it was one of the best cruises ever with the greatest friends. Rick & I will miss you terribly but you are at peace now and with Bill.

“ Mrs B aka Mom, you have a permanent place in my heart. I miss you already. You have been there for me for over 43 years. Motherly advice, wonderful talks about music, occasionally a pillow even when I was a teenager. I'll never forget our talks about Elvis, playing Euchre (well over 100 games) and even watching football with us. I'll never forget those amazing cakes and pastries that you used to make. I will miss our visits in Lexington and of course Naples and going all the way back to the house on Vaughn. Your family is family to me. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of that. God bless you Moms. Hope you're resting in paradise with Bill. ❤️
