“ My name is Debbie Alban. Sharon was 5 years older than me. Sharon was a good sister to me. She helped me a lot. She let me live at her home for awhile. During that time she fed me percocets every 4 hours for 3 days after I had all my wisdom teeth removed all at once. I wouldn't have graduation pictures if she hadn't bought them for me. She took on an enormous amount of responsibility after our mom died. She and Donald co-signed for my first car, so I wouldn't have gotten credit if it weren't for them. One memory I have of Sharon is when she rode her bicycle a mile down the dirt road to laugh at her brothers and sister who finally had to get out of the car and walk home due to spitting at each other. There are many other memories I will cherish as well. I feel sad.

“ I am her niece, daughter of Deborah and I remember when I was 15 and my mom was really sick. Aunt Sharon came down to to Arizona to help my 2 younger siblings and I after grandpa High got in a pretty bad car accident. She really made me feel cared for and showed me the strength of how a family can pull together in time of need. I also remember visiting Michigan numerous times and one time in particular thrift store shopping and how excited she was about finding those treasures. May she now find her treasures in heaven. “ I remember when I first went off to college, Sharon wrote me letters to make me feel comfortable, we wrote back and forth for awhile, until I started meeting friends, and hanging out and so she helped me to not feel so lonely at college by myself until I met friends. I will never forget that. Loving memories. Diana Williams
