“ Larry and I feel very sad for Shawns family, He is missed deeply by everyone who loved him. Parents never expect that a child, although an adult, will precede them in death. It has got to be the hardest to accept or understand Prayers that is in time the grief will ease, for his parents, son, daughter in law, grandsons, sisters, extended family and friends. “ I got to know you in 1986. We shared some great times with Paula, Kenny, Kevin, Kris, etc. The Shawn I knew was very giving and always smiling. We have not been in much contact for many years, but I will cherish the wonderful memories that I have at bonfires with you, watching movies, going to the beach, dancing, etc. Rest in Peace, Shawn. Much love always!
