

Shelia L. Epperson

February 17, 1948 - April 14, 2024

Shelia L. Epperson, age 76 of Port Huron, passed away on April 14, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on February 17, 1948 in Knox County, Kentucky, to the late Silas and Mildred Davenport. She married George Epperson on July 18, 1966. Shelia worked at Mosher's Jewelers in downtown Port Huron for many years and retired from Blue Water Plastics in St. Clair where she made many friends that became family.

Shelia was known for her beautiful smile, red hair, and sweet southern drawl. She was a selfless woman who would help anyone in need. Shelia loved to thrift shop, junk pick, and turn trash into treasure. She enjoyed collecting dolls, antiques, and jewelry. She also found joy in cooking up a homemade dinner for her family.

Shelia went by many names such as Granmom, Nanum, Shirley, Gran, but her favorite was Mom. Family was everything to her. She is survived by her children (AKA youngins), Rhonda (Michael) Phillips, Deborah (David) Ridley, Robin (Dave Choiniere) Epperson, and Scott (Stephanie VanTroosenberghe) Epperson, brother Douglas Blewett of Corbin, Kentucky, grandchildren, Heather Phillips, Richard Epperson, Amanda (Patrick) Parsons, Samantha (Zach) Slater, Jordan Epperson, Laikyn Phillips, Nash Phillips, many great grandchildren, and a special friend, Katie Taft. They will all miss her fiercely.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George, and an infant great grandson, Roman Silas.

The family wishes to give a special thanks to McLaren Hospice for their kindness, compassion, and care during their most difficult times.

Per her wishes cremation has taken place. A celebration of life will be held at a later date

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home - Port Huron.
