“ What a sweetheart. I had the privilege of renting my duplex to Shirley for years. She took care of it like it was her own. When repairs were done she always called or sent a note of appreciation. When I sold the apartments a few months ago it was bitter sweet. I remember the conversation we had when I called to let her know they had been sold. There was no grumbling, just well wishes for me. What a blessing to have known her. Glad she had great kids to take care of her. God Bless You all.
