“ The world will not be the same without my dearest friend, Shirley. We shared, cared, laughed and cried many times together over some 40 years. Miles did not separate us; sickness did not keep us from writing letters and talking on the phone. We always just took off where we left off from the last encounter. I so wanted to come out for the memorial services, but it is not possible and so my heart says good bye until we meet again with our best Friend Jesus. We will not be sick; we will not have tears and we will all live together in peace, joy and love. Shirley was full of love for all of us for so many years. Her life was a gift to each one of us. She now rests in Peace.

Shirley you were a wonderful person, wife, grandmother, and sister in law. Even though your life here on earth has come to an end, your life In the Kingdom of God has just began. Your kindness and love will not be forgotten, until we meet again! Rest in peace Shirley!
