“ Shirley was one of my favorite cousins. I remember her wedding to Jim as if it was last week. She was an amazingly beautiful bride, and the band playing at that hall on Gratiot was memorizing to me as a five year younger cousin. The last time I saw her was at a funeral and she was a senior citizen, but I could still see the bride in her eyes. Ironically, I sent her a note in a Christmas card last month suggesting that we should have a Devine Family reunion.
