“ As neighbors we conversed through the years, although I guess looking back now, not enough. Steve was surely a solitary man who I think maybe related to the animals more so than people. I know he was dedicated to and worked long hours with the railroad. Our cat Lewis spends much of his time roaming Steve's place, don't think he has figured out Steve is gone yet.

Rest in Peace Steve.

We would like to wish our condolences to Steve's family.
