“ Carl, Anita, Christina, Andrew and all the family members of Susan: So very sorry to hear of Sue's death. We just returned from a trip to Georgia when we read her obituary in the paper. I had the pleasure of talking with Sue during the time her children were participating in Faith Formation at St. Philip Neri Church. I always admired her deep faith, her soft and gentle ways and her subtle but genuine sense of humor. I remember that she loved her children and was always so deeply concerned about what was best for them. Sue is truly a blessing to have known and I am grateful to the good Lord that I had the opportunity to know her even if only for a few brief years.
