“ I am so proud to have spent the first 24 years of my life with you. You have done so much for me, youve sacrificed so much to help me and the boys. You was and still are the most amazing grandma for them boys now even tho they wont be able to see you face to face but these twins will know what an amazing grandma they had who is now our beautiful angel watching over us. Mom you have inspired me so much to set goals and keep going with it. Fly high my sweet angel till i see you again. I love you so much mama

“ I will love and miss you always, mama sue! Mama Sue is what I have called her since she and my step brother, Derek, came to michigan to live and become a family! Mama Sue called me pattykins, this was her nickname for me and I've always loved it! I am grateful for Mama Sue to have been in our lives and for the chance of a lifetime to have her as my step mother. She was never considered my step mom, she was always a second mom and will always remain that way to me! Susan Blume, you were beautiful and stayed beautiful from the moment I met you, until the moment you passed on to a greater and more powerful life! You will always remain in my heart and on my mind, thank you for always being here for me and helping me through so many moments in my life! You are and always will be my, Mama Sue!!!! Rest peacefully, mama!!!!!!
