“ Tammy is also survived by two younger sisters. Dana and Katelyn. She also had a younger brother, Philip. We never used the term 'step' or 'half' even though we were a blended family. We hold lots of wonderful memories of our children growing up together. Tammy was deeply loved by her father's family, and extended family.

“ When Tammy was little, she was like my live barbie doll and i loved to do her hair. she was so patient, but i can hear her say are you done yet Aunt Cathy, are you done yet?"
my response was always the same....."just a few more minutes honey."
