“ Tammy was a beautiful soul, an amazing friend that anyone could have. I loved the times that we did get to spend together. Whether it was with family get-togethers or just with Tammy and I. You will be missed my beautiful friend, say hello to my Dad and give him a big hug and kiss from me. If you see a fat brown Chihuahua and a short old man wearing glasses with an hat and a flannel that's my dad. Go shine your light with everyone in heaven. I love you my beautiful friend.
