“ I remember spending so many summers with aunt Theresa talking about everything. She would challenge you to think about what you wanted to do with your life once becoming an adult. She would even dream build with you talking about the kind of home I wanted and car I wanted to drive. She was a beautiful light and will definitely be missed by us all! We love you auntie and may your memory continue to bring us peace.

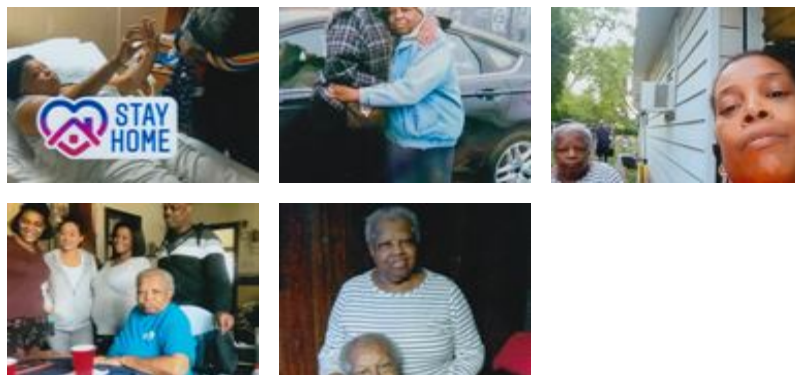

Love,

Daniel K. Watson

Aunt Theresa was a joy in my life. She was a role model for young girls setting a positive example. She taught me the importance of education and a couple of dance moves. Her physical being is gone, but her spirit and love live within.
