“ Tommy was the light of my life he was an awesome man that I learned so much from. He was forever loving, loyal, and the best friend - family I could ever be blessed with. We have had so many memories and happy times words don't say enough for how much he impacted my life. Tommy was there for me through thick and thin we had a bond that was unbreakable. My life is bleak without him here but I know he is happy in the arms of his mom and God he will always be my sheriff I miss you so much Bubba and know this I always love you forever and ever. To Dick and his family I thank you for letting Tommy my Bubba be a part of my life I would not be the person I am today if you hadn't shared him with me, for that I will be forever grateful to you for. Rose you take care of our son up there and save me a seat next to him!!!!!!

“ I HAVE SO MANY GREAT MEMORIES OF TOMMY. I WANT TO REMEMBER EACH & EVERY ONE. I WILL LONG REMEMBER THE LAST SATURDAY NITE WE SHARED WITH TOMMY AT OUR HOUSE.. WE SHARED A NITE OF DINNER & FUN WITH FRIENDS. TOMMY HAD STEAK & PORK & PIGGED OUT ON CAKE & GOLD FISH CRACKERS. OF COURSE EVERYTHING WAS HIS FAVORITE. I WILL NEVER FORGET HOW HE HAD LITTLE PET NAMES FOR ALL OF US. MY HEART IS HURTING BUT OUR,.HEAVEN HAS GAINED A NEW SHERIFF. HE NEVER OFFICIALLY ASKED ME TO MARRY MY DAUGHTER KARISSA BUT I FIGURED WHAT THE HELL HE COULDN'T HAVE PICKED A BETTER GIRL. LOL. LOVE U TOMMY. MISS U AND LOVE YA. TILL WE MEET AGAIN.

“ Tommy touched the hearts of many, he had a quick wit and always had a song or story. He loved doing his "taxes" and holidays. Tomorrow he would have been the Hungarian Leprechaun, and next singing "Here comes Peter Cottontail." His stories would bring a lot fun to a dinner table and he always related something from his childhood to whoever he was with. Tom and his Mom were pioneers, making way for unique living situations for Others with developmental disabilities. Mrs. Jones and her other children just wanted him to be happy, and Shelly ensured that he was happy. Thank you Jones family for sharing such a kind, caring man with our family. He has been a wonderful friend and family member to the Bailes, and it makes us wonder how we will cope without his fun loving spirit! We know that he will be riding fire cracker, spending time with his beloved mother and dad and announcing he is Dick Jones brother! Tommy Jones, rest in peace, we miss you! Our sympathy to the Jones' and again Thank You.

“ I have many fond memorys of Tommy in the short time I knew him. camping trip,,bowling, family outings , but my favorite one is when Shelly and I heard a noise in the kitchen,we went to check it out and here Tommy was with cookies in his hand telling us he had to eat them because they where broken and he couldnt take them to work..He always had a way to make me laugh and still does bring a smile to my face looking back at this now,,,my prayers go out to his family and to his special family The Bailes...May God Keep you in his tender care
