“ My deep condolences to all family and close friends. I remember tom when he came hunting at the Johnston Cabins, in Haileybury, Ontario...years ago. He was one of the best tenants at the cabins. He was nice to our kids and was a fair Hunter. He was very helpful in the camp and never caused any trouble. RIP tom and Gloria. I remember coming to your home with Rook, when we'd come to visit pt. Huron. Both were great kind people.

“ I had the pleasure of doing Tom and Gloria's hair at Charlie's Hair Designs before moving to Arizona. Never ran into them without seeing a smile on their face. Such great people and I am truly heartbroken.

“ I've known Tom for many years... He would stop in at McDonald's every morning back in the early 90's for coffee. I would tease him about the mess on his dash and how could he see with all that stuff on there.. Many times he got free coffee... Him and his crew built our house back in the early 2000.. We laugh about it today... I Will miss seeing at Lowe's or the gas station always so friendly and smiling....

“ Rick and I have been neighbors in the cul de sac with Tom and Gloria for the last 14 years. We miss them and feel the loss as we pass their house each day. We had great conversations and they performed many good deeds for us over the years. We could not have asked for better people to be our neighbors and friends.
