

Thomas B. Urban

January 7, 1927 - April 11, 2023

After a very long full life of 96 years, my father, Thomas B. Urban and his soul, have now traveled on to a new journey in his eternal life. He was a father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend of many.

He is survived by, his daughter Christine "Tina" Castoro, sons; Thomas and Richard (Patty). He was a traveler who loved to drive, he also was a driver for a military officer in World War II, he would visit casino's and tell his stories.

He is now on his new journey to be with his wife, father, mother, brother and friends, all who have preceded him.

May you enjoy that journey as well and be at peace with those who are waiting for you.

“ I was a casino dealer at the Seminole Hard Rock Casino in Tampa from 2008-2015 and fondly remember Thomas. He used to visit the casino at night and get exercise walking the casino floor. I always enjoyed speaking with him, especially hearing his stories of working for Fred Trump Sr. and having to show his son Donald the maintenance side of the real estate business one summer. Nine years after leaving the Hard Rock, I found myself thinking of Thomas today and did an online search only to discover this website and learn of his passing.

You're in my prayers Thomas. May God bless you, kiddo!
