Being a veteran of the Vietnam War helped to shape Tim into the strong, hardworking and determined person he was. After his time in the service, Tim went to work for At&t as a building mechanic, where he eventually retired with great pride. Tim became a member of the American Legion Post #499 in Marysville along with the Eagles Aerie #3702 in Port Huron.

Our dearest Papa, Dad, husband and friend, it has been proven that no one is replaceable, and everyone is put on this earth for a reason GOD only knows.

Tim was an exceptional father figure, grandpa and husband, with a heart of pure gold. No one and nothing got in his way, and anyone would see that from the dedication he had for all aspects of his life. Especially his children, grandchildren and wife. "Forever in our hearts."
