“ In our younger days together Tina and I shared many fun times. We loved going to Taco Bell together and share nachos while laughing at how much we loved them. Tina always seemed to care more for and about others than herself. (which made things hard.) But my friendship and love for Tina will always be there....I will miss you my friend!

“ So very sorry to hear about Tina, who was truly an angel and put her family first. She was also a fighter for both her family and herself. I truly believe she fought as hard as she did with the cancer episodes to keep herself going so she could continue to care for her family. She thought she had it beat but lost the battle.

Your family is going to miss you terribly Tina. I will miss our phone calls. Praying for you and your family.

Love, your sister-in-law Theresa
