My beautiful niece Tracey - I just cannot wrap my head around the fact that you are no longer here with us. I remember the day you were born like it was yesterday. Your Dad came to Nanny's and announced that you had arrived. He had the biggest, proudest smile on his face. I asked what your name was and he said "Tracey - Dick Tracey"! Being only 10 years old - I was upset that you would be named after a comic strip detective, nonetheless a man. Your Dad was always a big teaser and I was relieved to learn my precious new niece was really named Tracey Leigh - a name as beautiful as you were. Your Dad piled us in the car and drove over to St. John Hospital, where your Mom came to the hospital window holding you up so we could all see you. We were so tickled and proud.

As a little girl you had such a warm and caring heart and a gentle loving spirit - and that did not change as you grew up - It just got magnified. Through all you had been through over the years you stayed strong and faithful. Your Godmother, Aunt Paulette, was so proud of you and loved you so much. She prayed continuously for you - and had all her friends praying for you too. I will never forget the big smiles you gave her when we came to visit you at the hospital and you told her you were so glad she was ok after her heart attack. We will always miss you Tracey, but we find peace and comfort in knowing you are resting with the Lord, and in the arms of your Mom, Dad, Nanny, Grampa, Nanny Edie, Grandpa Tom, Aunt Loretta and Aunt Hazel. Love you a bunch sweetie, Aunt Brenda
