“ My beautiful, smart, talented and sassy ;) cousin. I am heartbroken over your loss and even more heartbroken for your siblings. They are so lost and sad right now. I pray you have found peace and that all of our family who have gone before we're waiting with arms wide open to welcome you. So many good memories... I hope you can see how loved and cherished you are by so many friends and family. Rest easy sweet soul and give everyone there my love.
