“ Aunt Violet, I will always remember those sparkling eyes, your beautiful laugh, the loving way you always looked at me every time you saw me, the hugs, and the warmth of your soul. As a kid I remember thinking that you always smelled so good and I loved your hugs. You were always so beautiful, so “put together”. I admired you, and still do. Journey well to the other side, dear lady, and may we meet again one day. I love you.

To the family, I know her loss will be deeply felt. My heart aches for your loss, our loss. I love and miss you all, and am praying for strength and comfort for you, now and always.

With great love always,

Willow Raine Frosty
