“ Love n miss you Mom. I know it was hard for us to talk on the phone later on, and the lockdown issue. But at least we got to see each other a few times this year. The three of us have been going through a lot these last few years.

I'm so glad you are at peace. I miss our times on Sidonie when I'd come over n listen to music or our trips to Franks Nursery throughout the season.

So much time had been lost. Give Gramma Betty a huge hug for me. 🤗😊💕💕💕

“ Wanda was not only my roommate she was my best friend. We joked together, Laughed and cried together. We shared our past life history together and couldn't believe the things we had in common. We immediately grew to Love each and felt like family. we Laughed, Joked around together and we cried together. She told me when she looked in to my blue eyes I was the daughter she never had ❤️ and how much she Loved me, I told her it felt like she was my second Mother as my Mother had passed away and that I Loved her to, we always stuck up for each other know matter what the problem was. If I was sick she was always there to hold my hand, the Nurse would tell her to go back to her side of the room and she'd say don't the F... Tell me what to do I'm staying right here to hold her hand the same as she would do for me, She was quite feisty as you can tell by her words but I learned to accept them and even use them once in awhile because when we first met I was very shy, I came out of my shyness very quickly with Wanda. I was very upset when Wanda went on hospice and her last few days here on Earth I was able to spend with her due to her son Robbie telling the nurses he wanted me there so for that Robbie I am very grateful. I love your mother and I'm going to continue to love her everyday of my life I will never forget her. I love you you seem to be part of my family now I hope you never forget me and how much I love your mother and you. From your Mary, a nick name they had for me. GOD BLESS YOUR FAMILY

“ Gramma, I remember the first time I met you, you welcomed me into your home and hugged me. I'll always remember you telling me what a cutie I was. What I'll always remember the most is the “smell goodies” and your awesome potatoes you cooked and still to this day no matter how hard I try I can never get them to taste like Gramma's. You will be missed and I love you!! Your Granddaughter-Shannon
