

Wanda Elizabeth Evans

March 15, 1957 - November 15, 2014

Wanda Elizabeth Evans, age 57, of Port Huron, passed away on Saturday, November 15, 2014. She was born on March 15, 1957, in Port Huron. She attended Port Huron Northern High School, before earning her G.E.D. and continuing her education at Clark Atlanta University, where she earned her Associate's Degree in counseling. It proved to be an appropriate course of study, as Wanda was always interested in helping others. She left Michigan for Georgia at a young age, and made a name for herself in the Atlanta area, for well over 35 years. Wanda was a kind and loving spirit who always wanted to give back to her community. She had always been passionate about dance, from ballet, as a young girl, to tap and modern dance styles later in life, and used that passion to the fullest as a dance instructor throughout much of her life. She worked as an advertising agent for Southern Bell, and later AT&T, she remained active with dance schools and as a foster parent, during much of her professional career. Wanda was a hugely caring and giving person who loved her family more than anything else. Her kind, caring spirit will forever be deeply missed.

She is survived by her children, Russell (Bridgette) Evans and Selena Evans; her grandchildren, Kira Rene' Evans, Damarris Greene, Luke Edward Willis Evans and Vadalle Anthony DeShawn Greene; her siblings, Gladys Noble, Frederick Brown, Kirk (Sharron) Brown, Donald (Antoinette) Brown, Margaret Brown, her twin, Bill (Cindy) Evans, Cederic (Susan) Evans and Terry Evans. She was preceded in death by her parents, William & Rebecca Evans, brothers, Michael James Brown and David Brown.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 22, 2014 at 6:00pm in the Jowett Funeral Home – 1634 Lapeer Avenue at 17th St., Port Huron.

“ Wanda would always light up a room with her smile. She was always kind, and taught my daughters how to dance for the Lord. She selflessly helped people, even providing medical supplies for people in Mozambique. She loved Selena, and children, and helped whenever she could. She loved Jesus with all her heart, and shared that love with others.
