“ She was a daughter, sister, wife , mother, but to everyone, she was a ture friend. Wanda may have been younger than me, but she was older and wiser in many ways. I was blessed with two wonderful sister, Wanda always hung around in school and at after school functions with me, she was like my shadow. Mary, my youngest sister, and I was never in school together, but she did go with Wanda at times. Wanda, being a middle child, had the advantage of being in the middle, and was able to go to school with both of us at differant times. Anyone who knew her, knew how how much of herself she gave, and was a very loving wife, mother and grandmother, but as a sister she was a more a best friend, than any other person I ever knew. I will miss her very much, but I will keep her memory alive.
Love you forever Kathy Bankson (Robison)
