“ Dear aunt Myrt and uncle Warren ... Your lives are an example of faithfulness to God and each other and of hard work. Thank you to uncle warren for the opportunities to work and harvest in their garden . I still remember him last summer sitting on his tractor mower and checking out the garden . A man of strength and endurance . Because of Christ we have the hope that we will see you in heaven. John 3:16

“ Warren would greet me every Sunday with three things in mind - a smile, a handshake, and a candy. He would laugh when I asked for 2 mints. One for before service and one after service. As Warren's last pastor on this earth Warren blessed many pastors and many people inside and outside the church. I wish I could have played on his softball team. Someday I will. -- Pastor Randy Bennett

“ So many great times with Warren and Myrt. I am truly a blessed man for having known Warren and the family. Heaven is a richer place once again with a great home going. So wish that I could be there to love on this great family, but I will do it from afar. Prayers, love and hugs from Arizona.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Warren. I attended the Free Methodist Church all my life with many of the same people every Sunday. But Warren always greeted me with a smile and hug. Warren and Myrtle were a huge part of the church family, always there with a helping hand and deeply loved by all. I know he will be missed by so many but I also know he has gone home to great reward with our Lord and Savior. I look forward to our next meeting where I'm sure he'll greet me with a smile and a hug. May you know God's peace in this time of sorrow.
