Much love to heather and stacy..im always here for you both...ill always remember her smile and laugh even after all these years.. I remember she taught me how to use hot rollers for the first time and a couple make up tricks...i was 15 then. Lots of memories from that time in my life..lol i remember when she had stacy...i babysat and thought she was my very own...both of you girls i have so much love for...god bless u and ur family..now she is at peace and no more suffering...i can still see us sitting in the kitchen while she ironed her work clothes and doing hair for work....RIP aunt wendy...love you
