“ We were 5 or 6 years old. I went over to Billy's house to play. Once my Mom went inside to chat, Billy and I took off outside. We climbed in the fence and started to mess with the cows. After a few minutes of messing around, he said we better leave in a hurry. Following Billy, we and darted through the barbed wire fence. My shirt got snagged on the fence. As I was trying to get untangled, I looked up and seen why we had to leave in a hurry. A big ass bull was trotting heavily toward us with a purpose. As I ripped through the fence to safety, only 10 feet or so shy from have some serious assistance from the bull I look at Billy's face. Wide eyed and mouth open he said, "well that was close", then calmly headed back to the house. We agreed to not tell our Moms. I kept my promise. God Bless Bill.

My deepest sympathy to the Bradshaw family. I know this is a difficult time and hard to understand sometimes why God does the things that he does. You are in my prayers.
