“ For Jimmy and his sisters, Billy was a literal big brother - but for me, and our friend Chuck, Billy was a figurative big brother. Big, gentle and kind, I'll miss him, and will remember him fondly

I'll never forget a couple of summers, where, for a week, mom and dad and the girls would go away on vacation, leaving teen-aged Billy and Jimmy the run of the Garson Ave house. They would leave a refrigerator full of food, and some cash. Big mistake. We'd make up vats of venison chili, spend the cash on beer, and see how many friends could sleep over

As with most childhood friends, we lost touch, but shortly after 9/11 Billy called me in White Plains, NY, asking for a place to stay if he made the trip to NYC to help out in the aftermath of that terrible day. I was struck by how genuinely Billy felt the need to help, but I was not surprised

As kids, we used to joke about Billy's big head (it was big!) but his heart was bigger. My thoughts, and prayers, are with my dear friend Jimmy, and Bonnie, Linda and Cathy, and of course Billy's family

“ It is always too quick, - but Bill was loved by everyone- We met in South Carolina years ago and are lifetime friends.
We did great things- as eating good meals, laughing, fishing for sea trout, & blue fish, and crabs. --- We were soo young,
Years later, on a hunch, I located Bill & Mary, and Bill's Mom, & Dad (by phone, in Upper Michigan, . . Mary answered the phone, and incredulously, I found them! -- and ever since.
We golfed at the air base course, ,and enjoyed each other's company. Not only are the memories vivid, - and, the sounds of (their voice - they're - a big piece of my Life . . . big piece.
My dear friend,
Roger

“ Billy was my big brother. We grew up playing and living together right thru high school. We shared a bedroom and many a laugh. He was a loving and caring man. Very proud of his family. I will truly miss him but always love him.
