“ A tribute to Bill...Always funny, laughing, boisterous, and dramatic. A big-hearted friend with all of the answers (or not :-)).
Loved music, woodworking, and everything in nature.
Too Early, Too Sudden, Too Sad!
Heaven is smiling-cuz he is there! RIP WGH

“ I've known Bill for many many years, I can't say that we grew up together because we never grew up. We shared many adventures together from camping, skating, fishing, Thursday night extravaganzas, fires and ride day at the farm, working together and most of all a lot of good laughs. Bill was fearless-never afraid to give his opinion and an overall decent and kind human being From his love of music and his home up north, and stopping to help a turtle cross the road and most of all his love for our two daughters. You will be sorely missed Uncle Bill. Rest in peas, not peace, my best friend. Love Rob, Mary, Libby and Jenny

“ Bill was an excellent musician and lyricist. He was an awesome Uncle to Many necessary and nephews who all swore he was their favorite Uncle, and his friends also were much the same as he was chosen Best Man to 7 of his friends weddings. Dennis and Bill enjoyed Fishing together and his plans of retirement included a house he built across the street from brother Dennis in Ocqueoc which included many Fishing trips on the Ocqueoc River, which is where he wanted his ashes to go. RIP Bill, you will be dearly missed!
