“ Uncle Bill and I spent many moments together...from the time he would toss me around in the 1940's on St. Clair street...to Keewahdin Dr. Where we played catch(he loved baseball) and took our bikes for a spin....oh, and we played a furious game of ping pong...my mom(his sister Velma) would come running thinking one of us was killing the other...Bill was a kind, gentle, loveable uncle and friend. I loved him unconditionally and still do....I have always thought of him as a wiseman...I will cherish our memories forever...like this pix of a picnic...
