“ Dad, As I sit hear missing you and playing my last message from you my eyes fill with tears and my heart feels so empty...you were the not only my dad but you were the man who could make me cry by just raising your voice,the man who could make me smile by acting so corny and the man who I got to spend every sunday afternoon with as A child watching boxing and eating popcorn.....you will never have pain again and you are with your family and friends that have left before us. Till I see you again..I love you with all my heart,fly high and please watch over all of us down here.,
Love,Your Daughter Lisa Kaye
