“ My uncle bill was one of a kind for sure..if you ever wanted him you knew where he would be....work of course...I'd stop by every now and then to say hello....2 weeks ago I was driving by his shop and I seen him walking into the shop I almost stopped but I thought I'll see him in a few days I'll be finished with his 3x4 foot painting and I'll see him then...I was 3 days to late to give it to him ..darn it. Every time I left his shop I'd put my hand on his shoulder and say I love you uncle bill...I wouldn't get much of a response but I know he felt the same....lol.....david...aka ..Eddie haskell.....lol

“ My grandfather was an amazing man. He always made sure that he took care of anyone who had the pleasure of knowing him. My grandfather would have given the clothes of his back for anyone in need. He loved selflessly in so many ways, just don't take him away from working lol, we all know how his work ethic was . He loved his family blood or not. He never looked down ,he had nothing to hold over anyones head , if you had a spark of ambition he would run a mile with it. I was the first grandchild and my memories will never be lost he showed me at the youngest age hard work was worth it and I thank him for all he gave me. He was one of the best men I knew and I will forever miss him ! May he Rest In Peace .
