“ My wife and I would see Wilma at Nino Salvaggio’s for many weekends, we always had a great time kidding each other & talking about how we were doing. She was a very sweet person & we miss her.

“ Remembering Wilma.....a huge heart in a pint sized person! Always a smile and helpful in any way she could be. It was such a pleasure to see her cheerful face at corporate offices whenever we were there. She helped out in so many ways besides her normal duties including dressing up in silly costumes in skits for the sales meetings. She will always be remembered fondly and we know her family is going to miss her very much. Hold her memories in your hearts with the love she shared with you.
